Professor Henry wins Two Major Awards

Following the announcement on 31 August 2010, advising of the scientific advisory board, Holista CollTech Limited (the "Company") is pleased to announce that one of the members of the scientific advisory board, Professor Jeya Henry, has been awarded two major awards.

Professor Henry has been awarded the 2011 British Nutrition Foundation (BNF) prize.

The award recognises a contribution of outstanding merit in the field of food, nutrition and health, made by an individual or a group of people during the past year or over a period of several years. The winner identified via a ballot of Council members.

The prize will be awarded in November 2010. Professor Henry also been invited to deliver the BNF lecture in 2011.

Professor Henry has also been selected as the Rank Prize Nutrition Lecturer for 2011. The Rank Prize is given annually to the person judged to have made an outstanding contribution to diabetes research. The recipient is invited to present their work at the Annual Diabetes Professional Conference.

The Rank Prize Funds were set up in 1972 in order to foster Lord Rank's interests in the area of science in human and animal nutrition (due to his flour milling/bread business), and in opto-electronics (due to his involvement in films/cinema involvement).

Professor Henry is the Director of the Functional Food Centre of Oxford Brookes University and is a member of the company's Scientific Advisory Board. He is working with the Company on developing several technologies in the exciting functional food ingredient area.

The Company is pleased to be associated with a world class and leading edge scientist of Professor Henry's calibre. We look forward to his guidance and support in developing our food ingredient business.

Yours Faithfully

Ben Donovan
Company Secretary
